

Join Now and Get Fresh Local Food Weekly

NEO Restoration Alliance-Urban Farms 2019 CSA Community Supported Agriculture

Support local foods by purchasing “shares” in the Urban Farms associated with NEO Restoration Alliance and our growing network

What is Community Supported Agriculture and how can I participate?

Community Supported Agriculture (CSA) shares are a way of buying into the local food movement and getting fresh food every week during the growing season.

Typically local farmers sell their food at farmers’ markets, roadside stands and to local restaurants and grocery stores. About 20 years ago American farmers began following a model developed in the rural South decades ago – the CSA – which is like buying a “subscription” to get food regularly, prepaid, reserved.

CSA farmers produce the food and CSA members pick it up weekly at designated locations. Farmers harvest what is in season, and that is what is included in the weekly basket.

Shares can be purchased by the month or you can pay for the whole season at once. Share pickup will be weekly May 13th through September 28, 2019 (20 weeks).

We have three share sizes:

Half Shares at $15 per week
Family Shares at $25 per week
Deluxe Shares $40 per week

Pick up locations:

Wednesdays 4-6 pm South Euclid
Garfield Memorial Church 1534 South Green

Thursday 4-6 pm Farm Stand at League
Park Market Place 7721 Superior

Friday 4-6:30 pm Gateway 105 Farmers
Market
